RECIPROcity CONDITIONS

The Parties shall develop, support and facilitate scientific and technological cooperation between cooperating government organizations of their two countries on the basis of the principles of equality, overall reciprocity and mutual benefit. For the purpose of implementing this Agreement, the Parties shall establish a Hungarian-U.S. Joint Committee on Scientific and Technological Cooperation.

The Joint Committee shall consist of four representatives, two of whom designated by the Hungarian Government and two of whom designated by the Government of U.S.

The Joint Committee shall:

Recommend to the Parties overall policies under this Agreement; Prepare periodic reports concerning the activities of the Joint Committee and cooperative activities undertaken under this Agreement; Undertake such further functions as may be decided by the Parties.

The Joint Committee shall meet periodically, alternately in Budapest and in Washington.

All decisions of the Joint Committee shall be reached by consensus.

Key areas of cooperative activities

Such cooperation shall cover basic research, applied research, development works and innovation activities. Cooperative activities under this Agreement could be: coordinated programs and joint research projects; joint scientific workshops, conferences and symposia; exchange of scientific and technological information and documentation in the context of cooperative activities; exchange of scientists, specialists, and researchers; exchange or sharing of equipment or materials; and other forms of scientific and technological cooperation as may be agreed.

Coordinated activities under the Agreement in each area with recent examples (e.g., coordinated/joint research projects, task forces, etc.)
